THE YOUNG AMBASSADORS

The BYU Young Ambassadors is celebrating 50 years of sharing staggering vocals live onstage and in televised performances around the globe. Since its premier performance at Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan, the group has performed in major concert halls, orphanages, government palaces, and hospitals in 68 countries. A melodic kaleidoscope, Thank You for the Music delivers dynamic choreography, colorful costumes, and a lineup of international hits and popular Broadway show tunes. The Young Ambassadors is produced by the School of Music in the College of Fine Arts and Communications at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Nestled between Utah Lake and the Rocky Mountains, Brigham Young University seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who are committed to learning and serving throughout their lives. Both highly ranked and highly affordable, BYU is a major research institution that offers global opportunities for experiential learning. The university is home to about 35,000 students who come from more than 100 countries. Founded by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU strives to be among the exceptional universities in the world and an essential university for the world.
