THE BYU CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

One of the most traveled university orchestras in the world, the BYU Chamber Orchestra is composed of 46 musicians, including string, woodwind, brass, and percussion players. Most of these students are pursuing professional degrees in music performance or education.

The Chamber Orchestra follows a demanding performance schedule that includes preparation for campus concerts in addition to regional and international tours. For tours, the Chamber Orchestra also prepares material designed to accompany well-known artists.

In 2017 the orchestra performed twice with Broadway star Lea Salonga: once at BYU and again on tour in Salonga's hometown of Manila, Philippines. The orchestra also put together a collaborative album with Salonga titled The Story of My Life: Lea Salonga Live from Manila, which received the 2020 BroadwayWorld Album Award for Best New EP/Solo Release. For a university orchestra, it was not only a prestigious achievement but, in the words of director Kory Katseanes, "virtually unheard of. It's unbelievable—but not undeserved—that BYU won."

In 2019 the Chamber Orchestra performed as part of the BYU China Spectacular. While in China, they traveled to Beijing, Shanghai, and Xi'an to celebrate 40 years of friendship between BYU and China.

In 2022 the orchestra will travel to the European cities of Prague, Vienna, Salzburg, Milan, Florence, Naples, and Rome. The BYU Chamber Orchestra's programs feature the great classical repertoire written for small orchestra across all musical periods, and they showcase the refinement and energy especially suited to this compact ensemble.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Nestled between Utah Lake and the Rocky Mountains, Brigham Young University seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who are committed to learning and serving throughout their lives. Both highly ranked and highly affordable, BYU is a major research institution that offers global opportunities for experiential learning. The university is home to about 35,000 students who come from more than 100 countries. Founded by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU strives to be among the exceptional universities in the world and an essential university for the world.
