NOTEWORTHY

One of BYU's top a cappella ensembles, Noteworthy is composed of nine powerhouse female vocalists. With a varied repertoire that includes pop, rock, jazz, hip-hop, and spiritual genres, Noteworthy has something for everyone. In 2007 the group was crowned champion of the prestigious International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella, becoming only the second all-female ensemble to win the competition in its more than 25-year history. Noteworthy has since appeared on NBC's hit show The Sing-Off, released eight albums, and become a YouTube sensation with more than 100 million views and counting.

Above all, Noteworthy strives to empower women and young people to discover their own unique identities and divine nature through the power of vocal music. The group originates in Brigham Young University's office of Performing Arts Management.
