In a dazzling, energetic, and upbeat evening of glamour and excitement, the Brigham Young University Ballroom Dance Company presents Swing ‘n’ Sway.

Showcasing a stage performance of spectacular dance formations, solo routines, and ensemble numbers, the Dancers delight and entertain audiences of all ages. Combos of traditional formation dances and standard ballroom steps with fresh choreography, breathtaking lifts and spins, stunning costumes, and energetic melodies make this performance an unforgettable experience you will not want to miss!

“It was a joy watching them from the audience. These American dancers are so professional and involved in their dancing. They bring such nuance to ballroom and also popular dance moves. As someone in the field, I find this most enjoyable and respectable.”
