- BYU International Folk Dance Ensemble (IFDE) offers one of the broadest spectrums of folk dance performed by a single group of its kind. Its extensive repertoire includes music and dance from all over the world including from Europe, the Caribbean, and Asia.
- In 2019, BYU International Folk Dance Ensemble toured Wyoming and Colorado. In May, they took their repertoire to China as a part of the BYU China Spectacular that included BYU groups such as Young Ambassadors, Vocal Point, Living Legends, the Cougarettes, the Dunk Team, and the Chamber Orchestra.
- In March, they will tour in Oregon.
- In 2016, International Folk Dance Ensemble celebrated their 60th anniversary as a performing arts group from Brigham Young University.
- Under the artistic direction of Jeanette Geslison, the ensemble has achieved an international reputation for professionalism throughout the United States and in more than 40 countries worldwide. The troupe is one of the most sought-after ensembles to represent American folk culture at international folk festivals.
- IFDE's repertoire includes traditional dances selected from throughout the world, such as Ukraine, the United States, China, Ireland, Bulgaria, Croatia, Spain, Mexico, Romania, Hungary, and India.
- The ensemble recently returned from their 2017 tour to Vietnam, Cambodia, and Thailand. The group participated in many service and exchanges activities.
- In 2016, the group toured throughout Nauvoo, Illinois, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- In 2015, the ensemble toured throughout Europe where they performed in three international folk festivals; The International Folklore Festival in Karlovac, Croatia; 'Ciudad de Burgos' International Folkloric Festival in Burgos, Spain; and Extremadura Festival in Badajoz, Spain.
- IFDE features 28 dancers, 7 musicians, and 4 technicians who combine to form a unique group of performing artists in the United States. The performers, all students of Brigham Young University, study a variety of academic disciplines.
- Mountain Strings, IFDE's folk music ensemble under the direction of Mark Geslison, provides the magic of live music for the group. Its traditional approach to music includes the banjo, the fiddle, and other acoustical instruments. Specializing in American, French-Canadian, and Celtic styles of music, the distinct sounds of spoons, bones, and bodhrans add percussive variety.
- During the summer of 2011, under the name of the American Folk Dance Ensemble, the group traveled to Europe and participated in the Danube Carnival International Folk Festival in Budapest, Hungary, and the Zlatna Sopela International Festival in Porec, Croatia.

- The ensemble performed at the Opening Ceremonies and at the Olympic Medals Plaza for the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City. In 1988, the group also performed in the Seoul, Korea Summer Olympic Games.
- Founded in 1956, BYU's folk dance program is currently the largest and most versatile program of its kind in the United States. Members of IFDE are chosen by audition from among the most skilled performers in a program involving more than 200 students.
- Folk Dance Ensemble originates in the Department of Dance of the College of Fine Arts and Communications at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.
