Journey

Any wanderer will tell you that there is something magical about discovering new places and old traditions.

Journey is a 90-minute voyage of dance and music through the heartbeat of the world’s cultures. In this show you will see Irish hard shoe, American clogging, Ukrainian hopak, exotic Southeast Asian and Indian dances, and much more. Experiencing the ensemble’s furious footwork, pulsing rhythms, live music, and authentic costumes will leave you with a special kind of wanderlust.

So throw off the bowlines and catch the wind in your sails as our companion on this Journey.

China: Red and Green

In China the color red represents celebration and green represents new birth. In northwest China young women and young men dance with fans to depict their happiness and hope for the future.

Choreography: Jiamin Huang
Music: “Spring Festival Overture,” by Li Huanzhi; recorded by China National Centre for the Performing Arts Orchestra

Canada: La Bastringue

By merging Ontario-style step dancing with the traditional Québécoise music “La Bastringue,” two distinct Canadian styles share the diversity and development of this living tradition.

Choreography: Kyle Waymouth, Jeanette Geslison, and Emily Hatch
Music: Traditional, performed by Mountain Strings
Musical Arrangement: Barrage

Ireland: A Lovely Madness

This suite of dances features the lyrical beauty of the women’s slip jig danced in 9/8 time, followed by a light jig danced in 6/8 time presenting the strength of the men. The energetic soft- and hard-shoe double reel finish the suite, typifying the precision and formations of Irish figure dancing.

Choreography: Tara Reid-O’Brien
Music: “Mister Molly’s,” by Beoga; and “Fiddler’s Despair,” by Natalie MacMaster and Donnell Leahy; performed by Mountain Strings
Soloist: Camille Ensign

The Session

Music: “Niel Gow’s Lament for the Death of his Second Wife,” by Niel Gow; “Lark in the Morning” and “The Moving Cloud,” traditional; performed by Mountain Strings

Indonesia: Saman

This dance form originates from the Gayo people of Aceh Province in northern Sumatra. Traditionally performed for national or religious celebrations, these dances unify villages. The Saman dance tradition includes live singing by the performers, with lyrics that tell folktales to give counsel or offer spiritual enlightenment. Often referred to as the “dance of a thousand hands,” the dancers sit in a long line and produce shifting rhythms with their hands.
Choreography: Rustin Van Katwyk
Music: “Hai Jalà” and “Hayla Hotsa,” traditional; performed by International Folk Dance Ensemble, with drums by Jake Goehring and Auriana Pendleton

Hungary: Élő Fény
These men’s dances from the village of Méhkerék are much loved. The slapping and clapping style with very intricate rhythmic patterns has become favored by professional Hungarian dance ensembles.
Choreography: Gary Larsen
Music: Jaw harp by Isaac Geslison

Hungary: Sun Dance
Investigating the authentic through personal interpretation and innovation, this work is inspired by Parov’s music as well as traditional dance expression from throughout the Carpathian Basin.
Choreography: Jeanette Geslison
Music: “My Sun, My Sun,” “Jump Around,” “Where the Sun Comes from We Came,” and “Wild in Dance,” by Nikola Parov; recorded by Nikola Parov

USA: Boot Kickin’
Country-western line and swing dancing includes the cowboy cha-cha, the two-step, the vine, heel digs, lifts, and spins. Influenced by the American cowboy culture, this type of dancing is also known as “kicker dancing” in Texas.
Choreography: Colleen West, Lyndsey Wulfenstein, and Garett Madril
Music: Based on “Fake ID,” by Big & Rich; performed by Mountain Strings
Lyrics: Mark Geslison

USA: Charleston
The Charleston dance craze of the 1920s was popularized by the rhythms of James P. Johnson’s tune “The Charleston.” It was made popular in Harlem and on stages worldwide.
Choreography: Colleen West with Emily Hatch
Music: “Five Foot Two,” by Ray Henderson; performed by Mountain Strings
Musical arrangement: Mark Geslison

USA: Pen of Love
Music: “When God Dips His Pen of Love in My Heart,” by Cleavant Derricks; performed by Mountain Strings
Ireland: Irish Blessing
