- Men's Chorus is the largest and one of the most popular collegiate male choirs in the United States. One hundred-ninety members deliver a powerful and fun performance with polished harmonies and full range of male voices.
- The all-male choir features a strong and dynamic repertoire, performing pieces from all musical genres including classical pieces, hymns, spirituals, popular songs, and folk songs. Whether it is a medieval chant or a fully choreographed production number, this group is guaranteed to leave a strong impression and a standing crowd.
- Men's Chorus tours regularly throughout the region, most recently performing for audiences in St. George, Utah.
- Men's Chorus took a mini-tour for the group in the spring of 2001. The men spent two days performing in the Celebrity Concert Series in St. George, Utah.
- In February 2000, the Men's Chorus traveled to New Mexico for three days, performing at such venues as the San Juan College Theater in Farmington, and the Kiva Auditorium in Albuquerque. They also held three daytime school assemblies during their stay.
- Men's Chorus toured for the first time in 1996, performing in Southern California. In March of 1998 they brought their program to the Phoenix and Tucson areas in Arizona.
- Rosalind Hall, the conductor of Men's Chorus, works hard with the members of the choir to achieve musical unity and flawless performance.
- Men's Chorus rehearses daily and performs many times throughout the school year. As part of their performance, multi-talented members also perform as instrumentalists and dancers, enhancing audience appeal.
- The Men's Chorus originates in the School of Music in the College of Fine Arts and Communications at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. BYU is one of the nation's largest private universities with 30,000 students from across the United States and 100 foreign countries.
