

Facts

2022-23 Season

Noteworthy

Performing Arts Management

801-422-3576 | pam.byu.edu

- As of 2018, Noteworthy is directed by Amy Lynn Whitcomb, who is known to have appeared on the TV show The Sing-Off and The Voice.
- BYU Noteworthy is made up of 9 strong female voices, who do renditions of rock, pop, and spiritual pieces.
- The group produces music videos each year that have helped them generate a strong media impression with more than 80 million views on YouTube.
- In the last few years, Noteworthy has taken their varied repertoire to Alaska, Utah, Arizona, Wyoming, and Idaho.
- In the summer of 2016, Noteworthy traveled to Illinois on a two-week tour, where they performed in the historic city of Nauvoo.
- Noteworthy's "Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)" music video went viral with over three million views in two weeks after its release in October 2015. "Amazing Grace" also spent a week on iTunes Top 10 Christian and Gospel songs chart. The video now has nearly 60 million views.
- Collaborations have included BYU's male a cappella group, Vocal Point, for their music video and song, "Oh, Come, All Ye Faithful" and with violinist Keith Goodrich for the Irish hymn, "Be Thou My Vision."
- Noteworthy was invited by NBC to be one of eight groups featured on the debut season of the hit TV show The Sing-Off.
- In 2007, Noteworthy won first place in the International Championship of Collegiate A cappella, held at the Lincoln Center in New York City.
- Noteworthy has released six albums to date, with another in the making!
- Noteworthy is Brigham Young University's premiere female a cappella ensemble.
- Noteworthy's varied repertoire includes rock, pop, country, jazz, musical theatre, R&B, spiritual, and other musical styles so as to appeal to audiences of all backgrounds.
- Founded in 2003 by BYU alumni Esther Yoder, Noteworthy only recently became an official BYU performing group in fall 2014.
- Noteworthy is managed by Performing Arts Management at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. BYU is one of America's largest private universities, with approximately 30,000 students from 100