This is an outline of possibilities to consider in relation to a BYU performance in your area. Our desire is to help you strengthen Church initiatives in every way through our performances.

PROCLAIMING THE GOSPEL

BYU performances can be used as ideal missionary and public relations tools. Typical applications include:

Missionary Applications (Full-time and Ward Missionaries)

1. Encourage members to invite their non-member friends, neighbors, business associates, and/or relatives to attend the performance. Afterward, the invited contacts can be approached as referrals.
2. Help promote the performance, by distributing fliers or pass along cards during regular missionary efforts.
3. Encourage interested non members to attend the performance; learn how they felt about it afterward.
4. Visit the homes of non-member guests after the performance. Names of these guests come from members who invited them.
5. The organizers could invite current interested non-members to help with meals or other arrangements allowing contact together.

Public Relations Applications

1. Involve a local community group to help with the promotion, arrangements, and financial proceeds of the event (such as an arts council, local charity, music or dance school, etc.). Invite a local performing group to perform with the BYU group.
2. Invite local dignitaries to attend the performance as guests (governmental officials, business leaders, leaders of other churches, etc.).
3. Invite art critics from local newspapers to be guests at the performance.
4. Improve the public's first impressions at the performance, and thereby their perception of the Church. Have the right people take tickets at the door, distribute programs, see VIPs to their seats, and otherwise assist the public in attending the event. Designate who will sit near your VIPs as a host during the event.
5. Hold a brief reception before or after the performance with the news media, Church leaders, members of the BYU group, and other VIPs.
