

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
THEATRE BALLET

Sleeping
BEAUTY

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
THEATRE BALLET

Sleeping
BEAUTY

Sleeping Beauty, presented by the BYU Theatre Ballet, is a dream come alive through beautiful technique and choreography. Dancers will delight audiences with scenes of fairies and princesses in the family-friendly show. The story of a wicked fairy godmother placing a curse on Princess Aurora will entice all ages as the princess awaits true love's kiss to remove the curse. Wearing fantastic, storybook costumes, dancers will portray the magical tale of Sleeping Beauty. Theatre Ballet will make audience members feel as if they entered the grand palace themselves.

BYU Theatre Ballet invites all to attend the pre-show Prince and Princess Party in which both the young and young at heart can dress as princes and princesses, meet company members, take pictures, and even dance with members of the cast.

Brigham Young University's top ballet company, Theatre Ballet originates in the Department of Dance in the College of Fine Arts and Communications. BYU is one of the nation's largest private universities, with an enrollment of approximately 32,000 students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries.

"We had a tremendous time at the show last night. This town is abuzz today about Theatre Ballet. Your dancers brought us much joy."

- Bonnie Malone, Sisters, Oregon -

"How we enjoyed the program! It was like watching every girl's dream come true—to be a dancer, to be treated elegantly, to be dressed up, to be romantic. Your dancers' control of their bodies as fine instruments was thrilling to see."

- Sara Bledsoe, Sterling, Colorado -

For more information contact BYU Performing Arts Management:

Karson B. Denney, Artist Manager | Web: pam.byu.edu | Email: perform@byu.edu

Telephone: 801-422-3576 | 306 Hinckley Center, Provo, UT 84602-8500

