

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

THEATRE BALLET

presents

Storytime

An Evening of Ballet Classics

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR,
SHAYLA BOTT

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY THEATRE BALLET

Storytime: An Evening of Ballet Classics is a night of highlights from the stage's most popular ballets, with both classic and original choreography. The dancers will delight audiences with scenes of fairies and princesses from Sleeping Beauty, of the magical toy workshop from Coppélia, and of sprightly dances from Gerald Arpino's Birthday Variations. Brigham Young University's critically acclaimed ballet company brings these stories to life, stepping onto the stage as if right out of a storybook.

BYU Theatre Ballet invites all to attend the pre-show Prince and Princess Party in which both the young and the young at heart can dress as princes and princesses, meet ballet company members, and take pictures before the family-friendly performance.

Brigham Young University's top ballet company, Theatre Ballet originates in the Department of Dance in the College of Fine Arts and Communications. BYU is one of the nation's largest private universities, with an enrollment of approximately 32,000 students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries.

“We had such a tremendous time last night. This town is abuzz today about Theatre Ballet. Your dancers brought us much joy.”

—BONNIE MALONE, SISTERS, OREGON

“How we enjoyed the program! It was like watching every girl's dream come true—to be a dancer, to be treated elegantly, to be dressed up, to be romantic. Your dancers' control of their bodies as fine instruments was thrilling to see.”

—SARA BLEDSOE, STERLING, COLORADO