Young Ambassadors

For more than 40 years BYU Young Ambassadors has graced the stage with staggering vocals and performances around the globe. Since its premier performance at Expo ’70 in Osaka, Japan, the group has performed in major concert halls, orphanages, government palaces, and hospitals in more than 60 countries. A melodic kaleidoscope of family fun, Welcome Home delivers dynamic choreography, colorful costumes, and a lineup of international hits and popular Broadway showtunes.

Young Ambassadors is produced by the School of Music in the College of Fine Arts and Communications at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Brigham Young University

Intensive learning in a stimulating setting—nurturing the mind, body, and spirit—is central to the mission of Brigham Young University. Cradled between the Rocky Mountains and Utah Lake, BYU was founded in 1875 by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The approximately 33,000 full-time students who attend BYU come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries, with about 70 percent coming from outside of Utah. All major religions are represented on campus. BYU’s faculty numbers around 1,600. The university offers about 180 bachelor’s degrees, more than 60 master’s degrees, and some 25 doctoral degrees, including a juris doctor.
