

Extraordinary Magic

BYU Young Ambassadors

2020-21

New Show Description:

Extraordinary Magic is a show for its time. It brings to light the importance of a person's story and the power it can have on others. The production showcases 3 seemingly ordinary people as impactful moments from their lives are shared--Terry Fox, a young athlete battling cancer, Rose Badrell, a Cambodian refugee, and Anita Wallfisch, a Jewish Concentration Camp Survivor. The Young Ambassador's will use contemporary music and pop songs to guide the audience through these beautiful stories of love, hope, adversity, and the power of connection. This show hopes to share that through trials and adversity we can become stronger, and by sharing our stories we can strengthen others.
