NOTEWORTHY

The newest official performing ensemble at BYU, Noteworthy is composed of nine female singers who deliver a power-packed concert that combines vocal percussion, humor, and a tight harmonic style that’s all their own.

Noteworthy appeared on the first season of NBC’s television show The Sing-Off, won first place in the International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella in 2007, and has been featured in stories by NBC Sports and BYU Magazine. The group’s recent music video and single “Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)” received 4 million views on YouTube within three weeks of release.

Noteworthy originates in the office of BYU Performing Arts Management.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Intensive learning in a stimulating setting—nurturing the mind, body, and spirit—is central to the mission of Brigham Young University. Cradled between the Rocky Mountains and Utah Lake, BYU was founded in 1875 by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The approximately 30,000 full-time students who attend BYU come from all 50 states and more than 100 countries, with about 70 percent coming from outside Utah. All major races and religions are represented on campus. BYU’s faculty numbers around 1,600. The university offers about 180 bachelor’s degrees, more than 60 master’s degrees, and some 25 doctoral degrees, including a juris doctor.
