VOCAL POINT

Brigham Young University's renowned nine-man a cappella group, Vocal Point combines harmony, humor, and remarkable vocal percussion into a thrilling showcase. Members are selected for their musical ability, creativity, and stage presence—and the result is exceptional sound and spirited performances.

Vocal Point recently received an Emmy for their 2016 “Christmas Under the Star” TV Special. In the summer of 2015, Vocal Point was invited to perform at Disneyland's 60th Anniversary Diamond Celebration. In 2011, Vocal Point was a top-five finalist on NBC's show The Sing-Off, and also placed as first runner-up in the International Championship of Collegiate A Cappella—a title they won in 2006. Online the group has gained a worldwide following, with nearly 275,000 subscribers and upwards of 47 million video views on YouTube. The group's most recent album, Music Video Hits, Vol.1, was recently released through BYU Records, and is available at BYUMusicStore.com, or where digital music is sold.
