BYU Ballroom Dance Company are World Champions

Provo, Utah, 2026 – Ballroom Dance Company is characterized by its ability to dazzle any audience. As touring took them from Shanghai to London to New Delhi, the ensemble consistently proves that they are one of the best ballroom companies in the world.

In 1972, the BYU Ballroom Dance Company burst onto the world's stage, competing at the famed British Championships in Blackpool, England. Crowned as the British Champions, they became the first American formation team to ever win this coveted title. Since then, competitive ballroom dance has become an integral part of the BYU program. The Ballroom Dance Company remains undefeated at Blackpool, and returns to England to annually to defend their championship title. This focus on competition dance drives and inspires the students to reach for higher levels of artistry and technical prowess.

BYU Ballroom Dance Company

The BYU Ballroom Dance Company is recognized both nationally and internationally as a premiere university dance ensemble. The company is under the direction of Professor Curt Holman and his wife Sharon. Their distinctive style and artistic vision keeps BYU's ballroom program at the forefront of ballroom dance in America. This has led the President of the National Dance Council of America, Brian McDonald, to call the BYU Ballroom Dance Company "one of the Ballroom world's greatest treasures".

BYU Performing Arts Management
