BALLROOM DANCE COMPANY

The internationally renowned BYU Ballroom Dance Company presents Rhythm, an infectious energetic show that engages audiences of all ages. The company's beautiful ballroom and rhythmical Latin dances are enhanced with artistic theatrical lighting and design.

Since its inception in 1970, the BYU Ballroom Dance Company has performed for millions of people in more than 35 countries. Highlights of the group's tours include a command performance for the queen of Thailand and extensive travel throughout China, Europe, and Russia. As United States and British formation champions, they have garnered a reputation for excellence and artistry, which has prompted Brian McDonald, president of the National Dance Council of America, to call the company "one of the ballroom world's greatest treasures."

The Ballroom Dance Company is produced by the Department of Dance in the College of Fine Arts and Communications at Brigham Young University.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Nestled between Utah Lake and the Rocky Mountains, Brigham Young University seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who are committed to learning and serving throughout their lives. Both highly ranked and highly affordable, BYU is a major research institution that offers global opportunities for experiential learning. The university is home to about 35,000 students who come from more than 100 countries. Founded by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU strives to be an exceptional university for the benefit of the world.
