FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BYU Mountain Strings

Provo, Utah, 2026 – When the talented musicians of Brigham Young University’s Mountain Strings play their instruments, the air comes alive with sounds of good, old-fashioned fun. With energetic performances featuring American and international folk music, Mountain Strings plays their way into the hearts of audiences around the world. Also a part of Folk Dance Ensemble, Mountain Strings brings the best of live entertainment. Either touring on their own or with their dance counterpart, Mountain Strings has traveled the world to folk festivals and beyond. Wherever they go, they remind people of the magic and the talent of different cultures and eras

BYU International Folk Dance Ensemble

Mountain Strings was formed in 1982 to accompany BYU's International Folk Dance Ensemble with live music on international tours. Now, in addition to supporting the dance ensemble, Mountain Strings also performs for a variety of local audiences. Mountain Strings delivers a program brimming with excitement and variety. It performs musical styles ranging from Appalachian folk and Celtic, to bluegrass, Cajun, jazz, blues and country. In addition to performing, the group enjoys educating its audiences about the history of the music it plays and the historic importance of the unique instruments.

BYU Performing Arts Management

Representing Brigham Young University's premier performing groups, connecting audiences worldwide through concerts, tours, and cultural engagement.
