

BYU

The Group

Noteworthy is one of BYU's premier a cappella groups, made up of seven powerhouse female vocalists. The group performs a wide-ranging repertoire that spans pop, rock, jazz, hip-hop, and spiritual genres, offering something for every audience. Since its founding in 2003, Noteworthy has built a strong following through live performances, recordings, and widely shared music videos. At its core, the group is committed to empowering women and young people to discover their unique identities and divine nature through the power of vocal music.

The Show

BYU Vocal Point joins Noteworthy onstage for a high-energy a cappella concert packed with pop hits, timeless classics, and musical theater favorites. The program ranges from Justin Bieber and Aretha Franklin to Wicked and Bonnie Tyler, showcasing rich harmonies, inventive arrangements, and an uplifting spirit. In addition to these crowd favorites, the groups honor their roots with moving sacred selections. With powerful vocals and dynamic stage presence, the ensembles create a memorable experience that connects with audiences of all ages

Outreach Efforts

Noteworthy expands their influence through vocal workshops, school visits, community concerts, and international outreach. Their efforts include devotionals, youth conferences, and performances in hospitals, care centers, and underserved communities.
As professional a cappella ensembles performing pop, sacred, and musical theatre styles, they are prepared to:

- Teach vocal performance in schools, churches, and community centers (topics include ensemble singing, stage presence, and musical expression)
- Lead youth events and FSY conferences with music and motivational messages
- Participate in service-focused performances and outreach
- Collaborate with choirs, youth groups, and performing arts programs
- Perform full or adapted shows for various audiences and venues
